

Confidentiality Statement for the Delaware
Domestic Violence Fatality Review Process

The purpose of the domestic violence fatality review process is to conduct a complete assessment of domestic violence fatal incidents. In order to assure an assessment that fully addresses all systemic concerns surrounding domestic violence fatality cases, panel members must have access to all existing records on the victim. These records include public health records, court documents, law enforcement records, mental health records, hospital or medical related data, and any other information that may have a bearing on the involved victim or perpetrator. The confidentiality of specific case information is required by statute. With the purpose of this review in mind, we the undersigned agree that all information secured in this review will remain confidential and will not be used for purposes outside the purview of the review process.
